Any tax, duty or other benefit to be paid in application of French legislation or that of an importing country or a transit country are the responsibility of the Customer.

12.2. Unless otherwise expressly accepted in writing in advance by Econocom Exaprobe, invoices are issued on the date of delivery of the Products or after the Services have been provided. Invoices are payable thirty (30) days from the invoice date, net and without discount.

12.3. Prices may be modified according to the exchange rate of the foreign currencies concerned, as well as the taxes and customs duties in force on the date of establishment of the prices, if it is import equipment. . In addition, the prices of the Services will be revised on January 1st of each year with application of the following revision formula: $P_n = P_o (S_n/S_o)$ in which:

P_n = Represents the recalculated and applicable prices for the year

P_o = Represents initial prices

S_n = The last known Syntec index on the anniversary date hereof

S_o = The last known Syntec index on the day of signing hereof or on each anniversary date in the event of renewal.

If the above index were to disappear, it would be replaced by a replacement index, in the absence of a replacement index, a new index will be chosen by the President of the Paris Commercial Court, ruling at the request of the Party most diligent.

12.4. In the event of late payment, Econocom Exaprobe may:

- suspend the delivery of all or part of any current Orders and/or,
- refuse any new Order without prejudice to any action for damages.

In accordance with the provisions of Article L. 441-10 II of the Commercial Code, any delay in payment of an invoice on its due date will result, without prior notice, in the payment of a late payment penalty, the rate of which will be equal to the interest rate applied by the European Central Bank to its most recent refinancing operation increased by ten (10) percentage points, and a lump sum compensation for recovery costs, the amount of which is set at forty (40) euros. Without prejudice to damages, failure to pay an invoice on its due date automatically entitles Econocom Exaprobe, at its discretion :

- to terminate or to resolve the Contract and/or the Orders at Econocom Exaprobe's own discretion,
- upon simple formal notice given by extrajudicial act or registered letter that remained without effect for eight (8) days,
- to request the return of the Products affected by payment default without delay at the Customer's expense and/or
- to declare the expiration of the payment term of other invoices, making all sums due immediately payable.

The installments will remain acquired by Econocom Exaprobe and will be applied successively to the difference in the market value of the Product taken back, then to the other outstanding receivables. The balance will be attributed to Econocom Exaprobe as compensation.

ARTICLE 13 – LIABILITY

13.1. Econocom Exaprobe carries out the Services and supplies the Products with the best possible care.

13.2. In the event that Econocom Exaprobe's liability is established under the Contract, Econocom Exaprobe's liability shall be limited to the sole repair of direct damages subject to the Customer providing proof of fault. Econocom Exaprobe cannot be held liable for consequential damages, operating loss, loss of savings, loss of customers, loss of image, loss of profit, loss of opportunity, etc. suffered by the Customer, during the Services. IN THE EVENT THAT ECONOCOM EXAPROBE'S LIABILITY IS RECOGNIZED, THE LIABILITY LIKELY TO BE INCURRED BY ECONOCOM EXAPROBE UNDER A CONTRACT WILL BE LIMITED, ALL SUMS AND ALL CLAIMS COMBINED, TO THE TOTAL AMOUNT EXCLUDING TAX INVOICED UNDER THE ORDER(S) CONCERNED OVER THE LAST TWELVE MONTHS, WITHOUT EXCEEDING THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND (300,000) EUROS.

13.3. The Customer agrees to bear, without being able to exercise recourse against Econocom Exaprobe or its insurers, all claims, and responsibilities, costs and charges exceeding the above limit; the Customer also undertakes to have its insurers waive any recourse to Econocom Exaprobe and its insurers beyond this amount.

13.4. Econocom Exaprobe cannot be held responsible for any damage resulting from: o fault, negligence, or omission by the Customer and/or a third party (and in particular noncompliance by the Customer with any of its contractual obligations) on a case of force majeure as defined in the article "Force majeure" in accordance with article L. 1231-1 of the Civil Code. o a breach by the Customer of its obligation to back up and/or update as described in article 8.3 of this Terms and Conditions.

ARTICLE 15 – TERMINATION

In the event of a breach by a Party of any of its obligations under the Contract, breach which it would not remedy within thirty (30) days of receipt of a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt notifying said breach, the other Party may, exclusively either request the forced execution of the obligations of the defaulting party, or terminate the Contract as of right and without legal formalities, without prejudice to any damages to which the either Party would be entitled to claim.

ARTICLE 16 – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

16.1. The Customer becomes the owner of the deliverables expressly listed in the Offer after full payment of the price of the Services, including all taxes, principal and incidental. The Customer's ownership does not extend to the means and tools used by Econocom Exaprobe within the framework of its Services, and which are subject to specific protection (copyright, patent, trademark, etc.). Neither does the Customer acquire ownership of the methods and know-how held by Econocom Exaprobe prior to the performance of the Services or developed by Econocom Exaprobe during the performance of the Contract.

16.2. Econocom Exaprobe reserves the right to dispose of the lessons learned from the studies and projects entrusted to it.

ARTICLE 17 – FORCE MAJEURE

17.1. None of the Parties shall be held responsible for any delay or breach of its obligations if said delay or breach was due to an event of force majeure such as, without this list being exhaustive, the blocking of means of transport or supply for whatever reason, earthquake, fire, storm, flood, total strikes, lack of electrical power supply.

17.2. The execution of the obligations of the Party prevented by the case of force majeure is then postponed for a period at least equal to that of the duration of the suspension due to this cause.

17.3. In the event that force majeure event exceeds three (3) months, each of the Parties may either terminate the Order concerned without legal formality, by sending a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt, or agree with the other party to modify the Contract to adapt it to the new circumstances arising from this fact.

ARTICLE 18 – CONFIDENTIALITY

18.1. Both during the term of the Contract and for a period of one (1) year after the end of the Contract, for any reason whatsoever, each Party shall consider and treat as confidential all documents, programs and information communicated to it in under the Contract (hereinafter referred to as the “Confidential Information”).

18.2. Each Party undertakes not to communicate the Confidential Information to third parties other than its employees, its insurance broker, its advisers, its auditors, unless it has obtained the prior written consent of the party issuer, and to take all necessary measures to ensure that its personnel, or any authorized third parties, respect the confidentiality of this Confidential Information.

Econocom Exaprobe undertakes to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information received from the Customer and, in particular, not to disclose such Confidential Information to its other existing or potential customers, nor to use, in relation to such customers, any Confidential Information that Econocom Exaprobe holds or to which it may have access in the context of its relationships with its other existing or potential customers.

18.3. As an exception, these confidentiality obligations shall not apply to Confidential Information:

- Whose disclosure is made mandatory by a law, regulation, court decision or by reason of an express request from an administrative authority;
- Already known to the receiving party at the time of their communication by the sending party;
- Transmitted to the receiving party with an express exemption from the obligation of confidentiality;
- Provided to the receiving party without obligation of confidentiality by a third party who legitimately holds it.

18.4 The Customer expressly agrees that Econocom Exaprobe may mention the Customer’s name and its status as a customer, solely as a reference in its marketing tools and communication materials, without any indication of the nature of the services or deliverables provided by Econocom Exaprobe to the Customer, nor any other sensitive information relating to the Contract (including volumes, prices, etc.).”

ARTICLE 19 –NON- SOLICITATION

19.1. The Customer waives, except with the prior written consent of Econocom Exaprobe, to make directly, indirectly or through an intermediary, job offers to an employee or agent of Econocom Exaprobe or its subcontractors assigned to the performance of the Contract or Order, or to take him into his service, under any status whatsoever. This commitment is valid even if the solicitation comes from the said employee or representative. This waiver is valid for the entire duration of the Contract, plus a period of twelve (12) months following its end, whatever its cause.

19.2. In the event Customer fails to comply with this obligation, it will be required to immediately and automatically compensate Econocom Exaprobe, by paying it an indemnity equal to twelve (12) months of gross remuneration of the employee(s) or agent(s) concerned, based on his (or their) last month's gross salary.

ARTICLE 20 – SUBCONTRACTING/ASSIGNMENT

20.1. Econocom Exaprobe may subcontract all or part of the Services without this releasing it, in any way whatsoever, from the responsibilities it assumes in respect of the performance of its contractual obligations.

20.2. The Contract and/or any Order may not be transferred in whole or in part by either Party without prior written authorization of the other Party. Notwithstanding the above stipulation, Econocom Exaprobe may freely transfer totally or partially the benefit of the Contract and/or any Order to any company related to it, by any means whatsoever and, in particular but without limitation, by way of assignment, merger, de-merger, partial contribution of assets or any other operation carrying universal transmission of its heritage. A company related to Econocom Exaprobe is considered to be (i) a company controlling Econocom Exaprobe, or (ii) a company under the same control as Econocom Exaprobe, or (iii) a company controlled by Econocom Exaprobe. By express agreement between the parties, the notion of control is understood within the meaning of Article L. 233-3 of the French Commercial Code.

ARTICLE 21 – PERSONAL DATA

Within their contractual relations, the Parties undertake to comply with the regulations in force applicable to the processing of personal data and, in particular, Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016, applicable from May 25, 2018 (hereinafter "European Data Protection Regulation"). In the event that the performance of the Services involves processing by Econocom Exaprobe of Customer's personal data, these provisions describes the conditions under which Econocom Exaprobe as data processor (hereinafter in this article the "Data Processor") to carry out on behalf of the Customer (hereinafter in this article the "Data Controller") the personal data processing operations defined below. Econocom Exaprobe DPO Contact: rgpd@exaprobe.com 21.1. Personal data collection As a Data Processor, Data Controller shall establish the purposes of the subcontracted processing, complete information on the processing of personal data, and maintain a register of processing operations.

21.2. Obligations for Econocom Exaprobe

Econocom Exaprobe commits to:

- Process and not to use the Customer's personal data, to which Econocom Exaprobe has access or of which Econocom Exaprobe is aware within this Contract and/or the Orders, for the sole purpose of carrying out the Services subcontracted.
- Process the data in accordance with the documented instructions of the Data Controller appearing in the appendix hereto. If the processor considers that an instruction constitutes a breach of the European Data Protection Regulation or of any other provision of Union law or the law of the Member States relating to data protection, Econocom Exaprobe shall inform the Data Controller. In addition, if the Data Processor is required to transfer data to a third country or to an international organization, under Union law or the law of the Member State to which it is subject, it must inform the Data Controller of this legal obligation before processing, unless the law concerned prohibits such information for important reasons of public interest.

- Guarantee the confidentiality of personal data processed and is strictly prohibited from disclosing, assigning, transferring, or communicating to third parties all or part of this information or data.
- Ensure that persons authorized to process personal data under this Contract are subject to an appropriate legal obligation of confidentiality and receive the necessary training about the protection of personal data
- Take into account, with regard to its tools, products, applications or services, the principles of data protection by design and data protection by default

21.3 Subcontracting

Econocom Exaprobe may use another processor (hereinafter, “the Sub-Processor ”) to carry out specific processing activities. In this case, Econocom Exaprobe shall inform the Data Controller in advance and in writing of any change envisaged concerning the addition or replacement of other subcontractors. This information must clearly indicate the outsourced processing, the identity and the details of the subcontractor and the dates of the subcontract. The Data Controller has a minimum period of five (5) days from the date of receipt of this information to present his objections. This outsourcing can only be carried out if the Data Controller has not objected during the agreed period. The Sub-Processor is required to comply with the obligations of this Contract on behalf of and according to the instructions of the Data Controller. Econocom Exaprobe shall ensure that the subsequent processor presents the same sufficient guarantees as to the implementation of appropriate technical and organizational measures so that the processing meets the requirements of the European Data Protection Regulations. If the Sub-processor fails to fulfill its data protection obligations, the initial sub-processor remains fully liable to the Controller for the performance by the Sub-Processor of its obligations.

21.4. Right of information for the people concerned

The Data Controller shall provide information to the persons concerned by the processing operations at the time of data collection.

21.5. Exercise of personal rights

As far as possible, Econocom Exaprobe will help reasonably the Data Controller to fulfill its obligation to respond to requests to exercise the rights of data subjects.

21.6. Non-disclosure of personal data

Econocom Exaprobe is prohibited from processing, hosting or transferring the personal data collected through its services to a country located outside the European Union or recognized as “unsuitable” by the European Commission without first informing the Data Controller. However, Econocom Exaprobe remains free to choose its Sub-Processor on the condition that Sub-Processor present sufficient guarantees with regard to the requirements of the European Data Protection Regulation. Econocom Exaprobe undertakes to take all the necessary precautions to preserve the security of the Information and in particular that it is not communicated to unauthorized persons. However, if an incident affecting the integrity or confidentiality of the personal data of the persons concerned is brought to the attention of Econocom Exaprobe, Econocom Exaprobe shall inform the Customer, who must as soon as possible inform the persons concerned and communicate the corrective measures taken. Furthermore, Econocom Exaprobe does not collect any “sensitive data”.

21.7. Personal data breaches notification

Econocom Exaprobe notifies the Data Controller by email of any personal data breach within a maximum period of seventy two (72) hours after becoming aware of it. This notification is associated with any useful documentation to enable the Data Controller, if necessary, to notify this violation to the competent supervisory authority.

21.8. Register for processing activity categories

Econocom Exaprobe declares to keep a written record of the processing carried out on behalf of its customers including:

- The name and contact details of the Data Controller and any subcontractors;
- The purposes of the processing carried out on behalf of its customers;
- The categories of personal data collected through its services; • A general description of the technical and organizational security measures put in place according to the needs and services subscribed by the Customer.

21.9. Obligations of the Data Controller The Data controller commits to:

- Document in writing any instructions regarding the processing of data by the Data Processor.
- Ensure, beforehand and throughout the duration of the processing, compliance with the obligations provided for by the General Data Protection Regulation on the part of the Data Processor.
- Supervise the processing, including carrying out audits and inspections with the Data Processor
- Fulfill its duty to inform the persons concerned by the processing carried out under subcontracting by the Data Processor.

• 21.10. Compliance with security obligations

Econocom Exaprobe specifically undertakes to comply with all the security obligations in the processing of Personal Data carried out on behalf of the Data Controller in particular: • guarantee the confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services

- restore the availability of personal data and access to them within appropriate timeframes in the event of a physical or technical incident
- set forth a procedure to regularly test, analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of technical and organizational measures to ensure the security of the processing.

21.11 Termination or expiration of Services

Depending on the choice defined by the Data Controller, within five (5) working days after the termination or the expiration of the Services for any reason whatsoever, Econocom Exaprobe undertakes to delete all personal data or return them to the Data Controller at the end of the service provision and undertakes to destroy existing copies (except legal obligation).

ARTICLE 22 – ETHIC, COMPLIANCE AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

22.1. General principles

The Parties undertake, in the performance of the orders, to comply with:

- Fundamental workers' rights, as defined by the International Labour Organization and applicable legislation;
- Provisions relating to the health, safety and hygiene of workers;

- Principles of environmental protection and the limitation of the environmental impact of their activities;
- A quality approach consistent with the contractual commitments

22.2. Anti-corruption:

The Parties declare that they have implemented and maintain internal procedures designed to prevent, detect, and punish any act of corruption, including by their managers, employees, agents, subcontractors, or any third party acting on their behalf.

Econocom Exaprobe declares and guarantees that:

- No person acting on its behalf has committed or will commit any act of corruption in connection with this Contract;
- It will immediately inform Econocom of any actual or suspected breach of these obligations;
- It will provide Econocom with all supporting documentation demonstrating the effective implementation of its anti-corruption measures.

For the purposes of this article, “Corruption” means any behavior consisting of offering, promising, giving, soliciting, or accepting an undue advantage in order to obtain or retain an illegitimate advantage, in violation of applicable laws and regulations.

Econocom Exaprobe further declares that it has taken note of Econocom’s Business Code of Conduct and Responsible Purchasing Charter, which may be provided upon first request, and undertakes to comply with the principles set out in these two (2) documents.

22.3. Conflict of interest:

Econocom Exaprobe undertakes to prevent and report any direct or indirect conflict of interest that may affect its objectivity or impartiality in the performance of the orders. It shall promptly report any situation likely to constitute such a conflict.

22.4. Compliance with competition law:

Econocom Exaprobe undertakes to comply with applicable competition laws and regulations. In particular, it shall refrain from:

- Participating in any unlawful agreement or concerted practice with a competitor or third party (in particular market or customer allocation or price-fixing);
- Exchanging sensitive information in breach of competition rules

22.5. Right of inspection and audits:

Econocom Exaprobe reserves the right, at any time, to carry out or arrange for audits or checks, either on documents or on site, to ensure compliance with the provisions of this article.

22.6. Econocom Exaprobe’s Whistleblowing System:

Econocom Exaprobe is informed of the existence of an ethical whistleblowing system set up by Econocom Exaprobe, allowing any situation that contravenes the law, ethics, or Econocom Exaprobe’s values, particularly in relation to corruption, discrimination, harassment, or fraud, to be reported confidentially and securely

22.7 Breaches:

Any breach of the obligations by Econocom Exaprobe set out in this article constitutes a serious breach that may result in the immediate termination of the Contract, without compensation or notice, and without prejudice to any action for compensation for the damage suffered or reporting to the competent authorities.”

ARTICLE 23 – MISCELLANEOUS

23.1. Entirety

The Terms and Conditions represent the entirety of the commitments existing between the Parties. It cancels and replaces any prior oral or written commitment relating to the subject of these Terms and Conditions.

23.2. Tolerances

It is formally agreed that any tolerance or waiver by one of the Parties, within the framework of the application of all or part of the commitments provided for in the Terms and Conditions, whatever their frequency or duration, may not constitute modification of these Terms and Conditions, nor generate any right.

23.3. Nullity

If any of the provisions of the Terms and Conditions is held to be null or void, it will be deemed unwritten and will not invalidate the other provisions.

23.4. Modification of the Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions may only be modified by means of an amendment signed by both Parties.

23.5. Applicable law

The Terms and Conditions are subject to French law.

23.6. Attribution of jurisdiction

ANY DISPUTE OR ISSUE THAT MAY ARISE IN TERMS OF THE INTERPRETATION OR EXECUTION OF THE CONTRACT AND/OR AN ORDER, AND WHICH THE PARTIES CANNOT RESOLVE AMICABLY, WILL BE SUBMITTED TO THE COURTS OF NANTERRE, TO WHICH THE PARTIES ATTRIBUTE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION, AND THIS EVEN IN THE EVENT OF APPEAL IN WARRANTY, MULTIPLE DEFENDANTS, PROCEDURE FOR REFERENCE OR REQUEST.
